

Affordable Event Finder

Authors: Mia Silver, Chase Bryson, Lily Ferguson, David Hannon, Jeremy Mann

Problem Statement

People miss out on local events since they struggle to find information on events occurring in their city that are affordable

Who is experiencing the problem?

People looking for accessible, fun events to attend in their respective city

Where does the problem present itself?

Mostly in smaller/medium sized cities or cities with less technology

Why does it matter?

It's good for local economies, helps the community, and helps individuals meet new people and participate more in local events
